UNITED WAY COMMUNITY FUND

Giving to The United Way for Greater Austin Community Fund means giving with the greatest impact.

2-1-1 NAVIGATION CENTER

The United Way Navigation Center, connects callers to health care and human services, and supports our work in education.

There are 1,000s of health and human services in our community, yet many don't know them or know which service they need. We help callers navigate this complex web of social services to ensure they get the help they need.

EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION

Low-income children are Austin's fastest growing population - there are 71% more low-income children now than there were a decade ago.

The United Way Success By 6 program works to make sure every child is ready for kindergarten by improving the complex network of child care services, parent education, public and private funding and public policy in Central Texas.

ECONOMIC & SOCIAL OPPORTUNITY

The United Way 2-Gen Austin Collaborative Network of more than 20 service providers have been convening quarterly since August 2016 and are working to address the systemic problem of gaps in services.

Through our 2-Gen Network we explicitly target low-income parents and children from the same family, providing intensive, high-quality-services for both, leading to family stability and self-sufficiency.

In 2017, we awarded our first 2-Gen grants totaling $120,000 to five organizations.

United Way for Greater Austin brings people, ideas and resources together to fight poverty in our community.

We are here to bring the community together in a united way – to serve as a convener of and backbone for powerful collaborations and to lead a collective fight against poverty.

LIVE UNITED.

United Way for Greater Austin partners with several local nonprofit organizations whose missions align with our own. These agencies provide critical services to residents of Travis County and their families. United Way serves as a backbone organization, meaning we integrate and amplify the efforts of our funded partners to create economic and social opportunity for thousands of Austin-area families every year.

By donating to United Way's Community Fund, your gift will support all of the following organizations, ensuring that your generosity makes the most impact.
